NEVADA FEDERAL'S PAUL PARRISH JOINS CUEG
Credit Union Economics Group Welcomes EVP/CUSO Chairman

WASHINGTON – Paul Parrish, executive vice president, chief financial officer for Nevada Federal Credit Union in Las Vegas has joined the Credit Union Economics Group.

Parrish has been with the $600 million, 80,000-member credit union since 1981. In addition to his credit union responsibilities, he serves as chairman of Member Gateways, LLC and is on the board of directors of X-Card Systems, LLC.

Parrish earned a Bachelor's degree (BA) in accounting from the University of Nevada at Las Vegas.

"I'm honored to join this elite group of credit union professionals dedicated to the credit union movement," said Parrish. "I look forward to participating in the economic and financial research that will aid credit unions in their strategic planning efforts."

"CUEG is excited to have Paul Parrish join us as a member," said Tun Wai, director of research and chief economist of NAFCU. "He is a very well qualified industry professional with expertise and knowledge of economic and financial information at the regional level. This will provide important perspective for the group and for the credit union community."

The Credit Union Economics Group is a working group of credit union officials located throughout the country who are dedicated to the current and future financial well being of the credit union movement. CUEG's objective is to provide credit unions with consensus macroeconomic forecasts and industry trend analyses that will be helpful in their planning and operations.

This independent, non-profit group also provides a credit union perspective on national and regional economic trends by exchanging information with the
